

California State Journal of Medicine

ISSUED MONTHLY: OWNED AND PUBLISHED BY THE
MEDICAL SOCIETY OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA

Vol. XIII, No. 3

MARCH, 1915

$1.00 a Year

CONTENTS

Editorials 87

ORIGINAL ARTICLES:

Dystocia Due to a Funnel Pelvis. By J. M. Slemons, M. D. 91

Increased Blood Pressure. By Jos. M. King, M. D. 94

A Case of Anthrax. By J. C. Fallon, M. D. 100

The Perversion of Forces in and About the Oral Cavity. By B. F. Gray, M. D. 103

Endocarditis with Streptococemia. By W. H. Strietmann, M. D. 106

After Medicine, What? By Raymond Russ, M. D. 110
(Contents continued on page IX.)

Spinal Anesthesia. By L. L. Stanley, M. D. 113

Combined Treatment of Syphilis with Mercury and Salvarsan. By G. W. Hartman, M. D. 115

The Clinical Value of Percussion of the Skull. By W. F. Beerman, M. D. 117

ENTERED AT SAN FRANCISCO, CAL., AS SECOND-CLASS MATTER

Mayo Clinic Papers Complete

You get in these seven handsome volumes all the clinical teachings, all the important papers of W. J. and C. H. Mayo and their Associates at St. Mary's Hospital, Rochester, Minn. You get, step by step, the development of their operative technic, their methods of diagnosis, the etiology, the symptomatology of the conditions, the histologic and pathologic findings, always emphasizing diagnosis and treatment.

Here are some of the subjects treated in the newest volume: Constitutional diseases secondary to infections, peptic ulcers, gastric ulcer and gastric cancer, technic of x-ray examinations, Wolff-Junghans' test, palliative operations for incurable gastric cancer, recurrences of duodenal ulcer, cholecystitis and pancreatitis, surgery of pancreas, entamebas, stool examinations, factor of safety in intestinal surgery, resection of rectum with preservation of sphincter, ureteropyelography, essential hematuria, renal lithiasis, pelvic kidney, cystic mastitis, histogenesis of carcinoma in ovarian simple cysts and cystadenoma, end-results in operations for breast cancer, clinical suggestions based on study of epithelial hyperplasia in breast, juvenile hyperthyroidism, iodine content of thyroid, depressor substance in serum of blood of exophthalmic goiter patients, effects on blood pressure of injections of goiter extracts, pathology of goiter, surgery of thyroid (5000 cases), Mikulicz's disease, epithelioma of ear, anaphylaxis and asthma, intercarotid paraganglion and its tumors, cervical rib, luetic mediastinitis, empyema, tuberculosis of spine, malunited fracture of femur, ether anesthesia, novocain.

Seven octavos averaging 800 pages and 300 illustrations each. By WILLIAM J. MAYO, M.D., CHARLES H. MAYO, M.D., and their ASSOCIATES at St. Mary's Hospital, Rochester, Minn. Early Papers (2 volumes); Papers of 1905-1909; Papers of 1910; Papers of 1911; Papers of 1912; Papers of 1913.

Per set of seven volumes: Cloth, $37.50 net. (Also sold separately at $5.50 per volume.)

W. B. SAUNDERS COMPANY

Philadelphia and London

FRANK F. WEDEKIND---TRUSSES, ELASTIC GOODS
ABDOMINAL SUPPORTERS

(SEE PAGE VIII)